“—your plan is better than a lower cash price—”

THE EMPORIA GAZETTE
DAILY AND WEEKLY
W. A. WHITE, EDITOR AND OWNER
W. E. HUGHES, MANAGER
EMPORIA, KANSAS
Jan. 3, 1917

I took upon the Encyclopaedia Britannica as a most indispensable book in any one's library. It would be a great hardship for most of us to have to get along without it. I like your plan because it makes the buyer use his books as he pays for them. For when a man has a monthly payment he has a constant reminder that part of his money is being paid for a lower cash price, and what is good also it puts the Encyclopaedia within easy reach of all, and I as heartily in sympathy with the plan.

THIS quotation, from the accompanying letter of William Allen White, tells only half this noted writer's appreciation of the new Encyclopaedia Britannica. The plan he refers to means paying for the books as one uses them, a first payment of $1.00, followed by convenient, small monthly payments for a limited period.

The great good of the plan, as Mr. White so happily sees it, is—"It makes the buyer use his books as he pays for them." Mr. White says that this is better than a lower cash price.

It is much better. The man or woman who industriously, sincerely, devotes an hour a day to a regular, systematic reading in the Britannica of the certain subject or subjects he or she is most interested in will not only find the plan of payment better than a lower cash price, but will find the books paying for themselves over and over in increased knowledge—and that means increased earning ability.

This is no idle use of words. The same testimony of the value of consistent, persistent pursuit of knowledge is given by Andrew Carnegie, who says: "A half hour a day spent in a particular line of study is the best investment a man can make."

Charles M. Schwab in a letter to us said: "The publication of the 'Handy Volume' Issue of the Encyclopaedia Britannica in such convenient form and at such a low price is something much more important than any purely commercial undertaking could be. It is bringing the most important and authoritative work of its kind in the world within reach of those ambitious people of moderate means who need it most, the men who are raising themselves from the ranks to positions of responsibility."

On this same point we have a letter from a subscriber, he Rev. E. E. Harter, who says: "Have obtained information from it that already is worth to me the price of the book." And another subscriber wrote: "Have had it three months and already it has proven a gold mine of information."

We could quote pages of high praise for the Britannica, testifying to its beauty and its usefulness in the "Handy Volume" form; testifying to its value as an inexhaustible source of knowledge; but what you should do is go and see and examine this work for yourself, see just what a wonderful help it can be to you every day in your work, in your home life, as an educational help to your children.

Gentlemen:
Please send me at once your free illustrated, descriptive booklet about the "Handy Volume" issue of the new Encyclopaedia Britannica, printed on genuine India paper.
I want this so that I can learn whether the Britannica will be useful to me in my work and my home, and so that I can decide before all the remaining sets are sold whether or not I want to buy.
Send me full information as to the smallest monthly payment I will have to make for one of these remaining sets, also the lowest cash price.

WALLACE CALLS CAB MAGNATE

To Close Deal Today

President Betkowski said in particular reason for immediate action is that if the companies are not disposed to enter into a contract it would be necessary to go to court to place a charter amendment permitting the city to close the contract before the people at the primary election. The plan is to be accepted by the companies it is expected the Council will immediately consider it and the voters approve the deal. It is said that Commissioner Kemp and Special Council Mathews are preparing to go to San Francisco to meet with the railroad company to present the contract to the Railroad Commission for its approval.

The plan is to not miscarry the companies will begin next Monday operating as the agents of the city and the city will use its own power and all of the excess power generated by the municipal aqueduct system, this being one of the reasons for the city's operation will continue until July 1. Details of the operating agreement will be pointed out tomorrow.

Henry E. Huntington, traction magnate, was yesterday served with a subpoena to appear today in the local Land Office as a witness in behalf of Kenneth Wallace, in the action brought by him against the Huntington Land and Improvement Company, to secure possession of six and two-thirds acres of land in the suburb of San Marino.

The hearing was arrested ten days ago, at the request of Mr. Wallace, who alleged that he had been surprised by the testimony adduced by the Huntington Land and Improvement Company, showing that since the land had been in possession of that corporation it had been continuously used in the raising of crops.

By a strange grim of fate Mrs. France barely escaped death when the ambulance in which she was being carried to the County Hospital, the day he died, collided with the machine which was bringing her body back to Pasadena for the funeral, as the two machines passed on Raymond hill.

The youngest child, a little girl, has just been sent East to relatives, while the three little boys are being reared for temporarily by friends in Pasadena.

The France couple came to this country from England, where they were members of well-known families.

ENLISTMENT SUSPENDED.

All enlistments in the Seventh California Regiment have been temporarily suspended while the regiment is being mustered into the Federal service. Many applicants have been turned away because it is possible no further recruiting will be undertaken for a week.

At least 500 veterans now live in the various national homes for disabled veteran soldiers and sailors are not only able, but eager, to join the colors and serve in any capacity except in the trenches, according to members of the board of governors of the National Soldiers' Home who arrived at the Alexandria residence preparatory to their annual inspection of the local home. Their services, it was indicated, would not only be accepted, but welcomed heartily by the government as the

Another German Jailed for Investigation.

John, or Frederick, Duhn, the German suspect who was picked up by United States troops at Calexico and who is considered a big catch by the Federal authorities, will arrive this morning in the custody of Deputy United States Marshal W. C. Carr of San Diego. The party is en route to San Francisco, where Duhn has been ordered by the War Department to be turned over to the military authorities at the Presidio.

Duhn will be taken before the United States District Attorney here, who has been delegated by the War Department to question the prisoner. Later he will be taken before the immigration agent in charge, Capt. Charles T. Connolly.

SEEK HIS FRIENDS.
The object of the inquiry is to ascertain, if possible, the whereabouts and the identity of some of the alleged conspirators who have been engaged with Duhn within the past three months, operating in Tuma, El Paso, Tucson, Globe, Calexico and other points.

From sources outside of the government officials it is claimed that Duhn's activities have been mostly confined to the Western Mexican coast, with Ensenada as one of the principal points of operation. It is understood that he had friends in several of the Arizona cities and that before coming to the Pacific Coast he was busy on the Atlantic Coast.

Frederick Duhn, alias Frederick Morris, is named in the warrant signed by President Wilson charging him with being a spy of the imperial government. Two other Germans, supposed to be members of a coterie of German spies, were arrested in Washington on Tuesday on information sent from El Centro by secret service men.

In Duhn's room at El Centro there were found a large number of maps and drawings of various fortifications in Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and Southern California, besides letters and telegrams which are said to incriminate Duhn in a wide-spread plot to overthrow the United States government with Mexico.

POSED AS OFFICER.
Duhn claims to be a graduate of Leland University and has served in the German army. He is 34 years of age. He admits having been arrested four times by secret service men on suspicion of being a spy. In Imperial Valley he posed as a civil engineer.

Officers at El Centro state that Duhn had the authority to pose as a Federal "intelligence man," an official who procures information regarding persons suspected of violating neutrality laws.

Just before being captured Duhn had spent several days in Mexico. Although officials of the Lower California government do not intend to turn him, it is stated that he has been cloistered with Col. Cantu's officers on two occasions. That he got small encouragement in any effort to incite a movement against the United States in Lower California is a conclusion leading from statements by Col. Hippolyte Baranco, Col. Cantu's chief aide, yesterday. Col. Baranco stated that the Lower California government would not listen to any plot against the United States.

ANOTHER ARREST.
In harmony with the new programs of doing things, following the proclamation of President Wilson, agents of the Department of Justice do not secure warrants for arrest based on complaints made by the United States District Attorney, but arrests are made on information. Yesterday afternoon Assistant Special Agent Webster of the Department of Justice placed A. D. Baser, a German, in the County Jail, where he is being held for investigation.

Baser says he is 37 years of age and has known for some time that he was being sought in connection with his alleged pro-German activities, but he strenuously denies the allegations against him. He lives at No. 1614 West Eighth street. Baser claims to have lived in this country fourteen years. Soon after his arrest he communicated by telephone with Max E. Socha, editor of the Germania.

Emil Itallener, the German newspaper man, is held as a suspect at the County Jail, awaiting information from the East as to Itallener's American citizenship.

GERMAN IS ARRESTED.

Man Who Says He Served as American Vice-Consul at Breslau is Behind Bars Here on Charge of Suspicion—Federal Investigation.

Protesting his innocence of any evil intent to the United States, Richard Wackerow, a German, 48 years old, was taken into custody yesterday. He was arrested by Detectives Barry and Edwards of the Juvenile Bureau, at No. 118 North Spring street, on a charge of suspicion. Wackerow claims to have served as Vice-Consul for the United States in Breslau, Germany, for several years. He is not an American citizen. He says that he is in Los Angeles in the interests of German widows and orphans. He is being held, pending investigation.

In his possession were found papers stating that he was appointed American Vice-Consul at Breslau by Secretary of State Hay, March 29, 1907. Wackerow says that he arrived in the United States December 18, 1914, from Italy, and that he came here two weeks ago from New York.

According to the police, Wackerow told a young girl at the Spring street address that he would give her $10 if she would allow him to paint her portrait. The police say that Wackerow threatened to kill her if she is not a painter, saying that he wanted to photograph the girl. Federal authorities will investigate his case today.

Who will give $6 to that patriotic boy can join the navy? William Frank Cunningham wants to enlist, but is too young unless he has the consent of a guardian. As he is an orphan he is "up against it" unless some patriotic man or woman furnishes the money to pay the court costs in appointing a guardian.

The boy has passed all examinations successfully. All that stands in his way is the consent of a guardian. Anyone desiring to help out can do so by calling Public Defender Popper at Main 9840 or 60111 before 10 o'clock this morning.

This youth who wants to give himself to his country lost his mother when he was 8 years old. His father died when he was 10.

FINES HIMSELF; OVERCHARGES.

Lawyer Thinks Five Dollars
Right but Others Pay
Only Three.

Attorney Millap's judgment robbed him of $2 yesterday.
He was in Justice Hinshaw's court on a charge of speeding. "Guilty or not guilty?"
asked the justice.
"I was going pretty fast, I guess," said Millap.
"What do you think you ought to be fined?"
"Oh, $5."
"All right."
The fine was paid, a receipt given, then Justice Hinshaw thanked Mr. Millap for his liberality, because all day others had only been fined $3 for a similar offense.

STRANGE CASE.

TRIAL OF BARRETT WILL BEGIN TODAY.

MOST UNUSUAL PHASES TO BE PRESENTED.

Man Who Confessed to Killing
Wife and Stepmother and Burning
Their Bodies Causes Varied
Opinions Among the Criminologists.

Benton L. Barrett, the elderly Santa Monica, who entered the District Attorney's office several months ago, and reported he had killed his wife and stepmother, and burned their bodies in an open fire in the orchard, faces trial today in Superior Judge Willis's court on a charge of murder in the first degree.
The trial promises to be one of the most unusual in the history of the local criminal courts, and the reports of the tragedy have called forth widespread and varying opinions from criminologists throughout the country.

The defense, led by Attorney Ona Morton, will contend Barrett was insane when he made his confession, and that the woman and son are not dead. The District Attorney's office will attempt to prove the crime was committed as Barrett confessed he had done it. Expert testimony will be introduced to show whether or not human bodies could be in-cinerated in such a fire as Barrett built in his orchard.

Mrs. Barrett and her son have been declared legally dead by an action of the Superior Court in this county. The defense will make an effort to prove she is the city with her son for some ulterior motive.
It is expected the trial will continue for more than a week. The ownership of an estate of considerable value also is involved in the trial.

TWO MORE TESTIFY.

Supervisors Woodley and Hinshaw appeared before the county grand jury yesterday in the inquiry into the alleged juggling of the $1,250, 000 fund. All the other Supervisors have been called in the past, and the investigation stands as the longest and most exhaustive this year's grand jury has yet made. No new evidence has been introduced, but a thorough record of each step in the unusual transaction of switching such a huge fund has been made by the grand jury.

MODART CORSETS

Front Laced.

Because it fits the body perfectly, giving freedom of movement, grace and beauty, the MODART can be worn for golf, for tennis,
as well as on the dance floor.
It is this combining of elasticity and grace that makes the MODART so popular,
so essential.

And with it all there is nothing of femininity lacking in the MODART—
it is a womanly corset, graceful, petite, lending beauty of carriage and modishness to gown, suit or sport apparel.

There is a MODART here for you in the many new models we show. May we not have the pleasure of allowing our expert corsetiers to fit you scientifically?

EMPLOYEES TO BE LAID OFF.

County Determines on Sharp Retrenchment Policy.

Enforced Vacations of from Three to Six Weeks.

Workers by Hundreds Plan
Vigorous Protest.

Under the system of retrenchment decided upon by the Board of Supervisors yesterday county employees will take enforced vacations between now and July 1, the beginning of the fiscal year. The layoffs will cover from three to six weeks without pay. Employees who decide to take their regular two weeks' vacations now will be paid for that period, but will receive nothing for the other weeks of the enforced rest from work. Those who take the regular vacation later will draw nothing until they return to work.

County employees, while not openly rebellious, regard this step on the part of the Supervisors as imposition. They claim they are not responsible for the deficit existing in the county funds and should not be made to suffer for the mistake of the board itself.

The Supervisors, on the other hand, expect the employees to take the matter philosophically as an effort to help the county out of a bad financial hole. The answer to this on the part of the employees is that the high cost of living precludes indulgence in a philosophical proposition.

Following receipt of the intelligence, the Executive Committee of the County Employees' Benefit and Improvement Association, which has several hundred members, held a meeting and authorized the Investigating Committee to ascertain who is responsible for the order compelling employees to take vacations without pay. The committee will confer with the Supervisors and report back to the Executive Committee. The latter will then hold another meeting and decide what action to take to head off what is deemed a grave injustice. This may be by injunction proceedings if the Supervisors insist on carrying out the order.

Engineer Who Sought Separance of Marriage Tie, in a Hearing Bristling with Sensations, is Still Wed and Must Support
His Wife.

William Ogden Wade, an engineer, was denied a divorce by Judge Taft yesterday, after a hearing bristling with sensations. Mr. Wade charged cruelty. One of the allegations was that his wife, Jeanette H.
Wade, a former actress, invariably insisted upon a separate room for herself when they were traveling.
Mrs. Wade made grave charges in a cross-complaint. Mr. Wade was ordered to pay $40 a month for his wife's support and $250 attorney's fees. Mrs. Wade admitted on cross-examination that after their separation Mr. Wade offered her $5000 in a property settlement.

SOLDIER BURNED.
The use of a milk can, with the lid tightly closed, as a coffee boiler, yesterday morning resulted in the severe burning of Maurice Stanford, aged 13, of South Pasadena. A member of Co. I, Seventh Regiment, the soldier was standing over the pot when the lid was forced off by the steam pressure, and the hot liquid struck him in the face and hands. His burns are not serious.

INDIAN CHIEF SCALPS DUCKS.

Firebrand Pulls Some High-class Stuff.

Also Breaks Again into the Limelight.
Brenton's Curses Remind Writer of Pretzels.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

Just to prove that Tuesday's victory was not due to a mere horse shoe with which an admiring public presented George Stovall, the Tigers repeated yesterday.

With no carnations or Arizona hollyhocks as an inspiration, Vernon made it two straight for the series, 7 to 1, and the only thing in the way of decorations was the "can" which the Tigers tied to the Beavers.

Everything was again peaceful in the pits. Stovall has changed his plan of campaign. Instead of punching McCredie, he has decided to lick the stuffing out of Mac's ball team.

The Firebrand was again emitting sparks. He put a run across with a perfect "squeeze" in the third, and in the eighth sent two more around on a beautiful hit.

Galloway and McLarry had pulled the unexpected in the shape of a double steal. Stovall has the Tigers playing an entirely different brand of ball to which they have been accustomed. Of course, they won't get away with these plays every day in the week, but it is plain even to the untrained eye that he has the right idea. His grand old bean is a storehouse of baseball wisdom.

Chief Johnson was entirely too strong and crafty for the visitors, who derived their only run from a questionable hit and an error in the second. The Tigers got this back in the same round, when McLarry and Callahan bounced on Dick Brenton for singles. They practically clinched the combat with three runs in the sixth, and added another bunch of three in the eighth just to keep in practice.

Brenton had a lot of stuff up his sleeve, and more curves than a pretzel. But he was wild and woolly, and it so came about that not one of the Vernon hits was wasted. Brenton was at his wildest in the third. In that round, Johnson swung at a wild pitch for the third strike, and reached first before the pill could be recovered.

A little later, Brenton executed a wild heave, which was the fourth ball on McLarry, allowing Doane to score from third. About this time, spectators sitting back of the plate got up and moved. They were afraid that the Portland pitcher might throw the ball through the wire netting and commit involuntary manslaughter. Tom Darnody and Walter Jackson were driven out in this manner, and witnessed the remainder of the game through a port hole.

Jim Galloway had a profitable day in the field, and at the home plate sawed off a single and a double, and handled nine chances in the field without a slip. Jim and third base are getting to like each other. Polly McLarry was the next best hitter with a brace of rousing singles.

Stovall has been playing under difficulties. In San Francisco a base runner chipped half a pound of meat off one of his legs. With one leg half a pound lighter than the other he cannot run with his usual even stride. Then following the exhibition game in Salt Lake Sunday, George went out to see the sights and accidentally ran an oil derrick in his eye. He did not know that the trouble was at the time, but as the eye continued to pain him he visited a specialist yesterday.

The specialist discovered several sections of the derrick, and gave the patient a dose of the "snake screen" which brought the patient relief, and he is now seeing better.

BABE BORTON.

Babe Horton almost upset Daley with a deep smother in the blow, advanced to third on Holloloh's out and counted on a cranky grounder by Great Gus McLarry.

McLarry started the home half with a single, took second on Stovall's out, and counted when Callahan crashed a line single over short. Farmer heaved the ball home in great shape, but McLarry fanned his way under Fisher on his stomach. Furthestmost, he raised such a cloud of dust that Great Gus could not locate him. This dust served the same purpose that a "snake screen" does for a veal dodging submarine at sea.

Johnson was first up in the third. He swung at a wild heave for the third strike. This example of Indian craftiness landed him at first base. Doane walked, and Daley fanned. Frits didn't reach first because Brenton didn't feed him any wild pitches. Galloway lined a double over first that scored the Chief, and moved Doane to third.

With three balls on McLarry, Brenton tossed the pill to the grand stand. He and Frits hardly appeared to be on speaking terms and there was no working agreement between them. Doane counted on the toss. Mac fanned to first and Galloway took third. Jim came across when Stovall "squeezed." Brenton to Horton. Callahan popped to his contemporary, Holloloh's get out.

It was a pass to Doane that started the big splash in the eighth. Slight shot in and appeared Daley's short burst fly near the plate, and Walter had barely time to scramble back to first. Galloway's bump bounded about two feet higher than Horton could bounce. Doane went to third on the hit, and scored on another by McLarry. Galloway taking second. McLarry and McLarry made a concerted steal of third and second. The hit-and-run was signaled. With both men under way, Stovall slammed one just inside third, trailing one of Galloway's ears. Jim simply lowered his head and tore along to the plate followed by McLarry, while the ball shot on into left. The Beavers were plainly astonished. The Firebrand was flagged stealing second.

Bill Stump performed his daily duty by batting for the pitcher in the ninth. Bill failed to connect. He says that he doesn't see how a pinch-hitter can hit when there is no pinch.

STANFORD CREW
TO JOIN NAVY.

(DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, April 11.—Thirty members of the Stanford crew squad, including the entire first varsity which is to row against Washington and California Saturday, have offered services to the United States government for immediate duty in the Coast Naval Service. A telegram to Lieutenant-Commander C. H. Crocker, of the Twelfth Naval District, was sent on behalf of the oarsmen by Graduate Manager Behrens this morning.

The cardinal rowers desire to make a coast patrol boat. Most of the oarsmen are experienced sailors. Although it is a Stanford crew that has offered to serve, the contingent would practically be a Southern California force as two-thirds of the card oarsmen are from that part of the State.

VEITH ARRANGING
HANDICAP SWIMS.

Director-General Frederick Vance Veith spent a few minutes last night explaining the charms of the coming L.A.C. handicap swimming meet. Following are a few pearls selected from Mr. Veith's remarks.

"This meet," he began, "will be one of the toniest things seen in local waters for some time. All the swimmers of the L.A.C. will take part and will be aided and assisted by suitable handicaps. Every member will have a good chance to win an event and a gold medal.

"All the regular events will be slated from the relay to the plunge-for-distance. The contest is to materialize April 12. It will be free and well worth anyone's price of admission."

"Good night," concluded Veith as he fitted away.

MARKET SUSTAINS A SEVERE BREAK.

(NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, April 11.—The cotton market, which made sharp advances Monday and Tuesday, sustained a severe break today, with July contracts selling down to 19 1/2, or $2.25 in loss under the high quotation of Monday. The closing figures showed moderate rallies, but the tone was still unsettled at a net decline of 1/2 to 1 point. Private reports of showers or rains in the Southwest, and of increased spot offerings from various southern points, were factors in the late break. There was also some talk of southern selling here of both old and new crop months, but the bulk of the pressure was attributed to further liquidation and a disposition to wait further development of war measures, or some active feature of the South. The market opened steady at a decline of 1/2 to 1 point on an advance of 1/2 to 1 point. The tone seemed to be taken from relatively firm cables, but there was a renewal of liquidation, and prices fell to 19 1/2 to 20 points. The market closed at a net loss of 1/2 to 1 point. During the last few days Hall & Haas of this city have received the first consignment of the season, the same sailing to the Alexandria Hotel and the Hotel Grocery of Pasadena for $1.25 a pound. Lower of fresh fruit have not a very large assortment to pick from at the present moment and they have to satisfy themselves with apples and bananas. The new crop of the various kinds of fresh fruit will not be in the market for some time yet, and in the meantime the dealers of this city are figuring on a heavy run on their apple stocks, which light sold values in new high levels. The apple situation at the end of the season has seldom exhibited the strength that this year has shown. Dealers now stand to make a decent profit, after taking losses as the usual thing from year to year. A number of fresh vegetables are showing an upward trend, which will be appreciated in these days of ascending prices. Yesterday the best grade of green beans were lowered to 10 and 15 cents a pound, notwithstanding the fact that there is a very heavy demand for the same. Housewives are not of appreciable quantities and it is anticipated that the market will rule in a few days. A great many dealers are finding their way into Los Angeles from Mexico, and prices have in consequence dropped. Beans, for example, are for the very best specimens. A reduction in root vegetables is expected any day.

In the provision market hogs continue to be the feature. Packers are now getting $12.50 to $13.00 for the better grades, and reports from the producers are that the stringency of supplies. Beef, mutton and veal are firm, but further advances would not occasion surprise.

Hens remained steady at yesterday's morning's session of the Produce Exchange, and brokers did not receive much interest in the market. Chicken offerings were lighter than usual, and the other commodities were neglected. The receipts totaled 787 cases of eggs, 50,000 pounds of butter, 2,190 pounds of cheese and 15 cases of beans.

HITS AND SPECIALTIES.
NEWS AND GOSSIP OF STAGE AND FILM LAND.

Along the Rialto.
A general shifting of releasing and distributing conditions is imminent, judging from all the signs. Merger will out, as some wit has already said. A report which appears authoritative, and which is not denied by heads of the organizations, now has General Film Vitaphone and K.E.S.E. conferring with reference to combining their distributing organizations. A high official of the General Film company, who does not wish to be quoted on the subject, admitted that negotiations to this end had reached a promising point. It is understood that Frank Hittcock, chairman of the present Executive Committee of the Vitaphone, will be appointed as president of the controlling board handling the film distribution of the three companies, providing the deal is consummated.

Two little Blossoms.
Bradford and Howard Blossom, sons of Mrs. M. C. Blossom of St. Louis, who is making her winter home at the Raymond.

Three Cheers for Kahn.
The picture people may just as well prepare to give three cheers, Ivan Kahn, scenario writer, and pal in the first degree of many motion picture stars, has joined the Naval Reserves and leaves today for San Francisco, where naval recruits will be mobilized for Federal service.

Miss Claire Shifts.
Ina Claire is to leave musical comedy and appear in a new play under the management of David Belasco.

Smoked Glasses Note.
A blinding array of genius is shortly to show the Morocco Theater. Blanche Ring and Charles Winninger will be two of the stars of a new musical comedy by that trio of clever ones, Elmer Harris, Oliver Morosco and Earl Carroll.

Exhibit a Worthwhile.
Have you seen the fifty girl whom they are using at the Woodlee? If not, get aboard.

Dramatic Setting.
The other day George Beban had a big dramatic scene with a jail cell as a setting. Through the kindness of some of the Los Angeles county officials, the County Jail New York hours, his co-workers decided to perpetrate a joke upon the genial actor, and so went away and left him prisoner. Later they returned expecting to find Beban a very angry man, but to their surprise when they found him with pad and pencil busily engaged in writing a new play with a jail setting, and indeed, he seemed quite reluctant to leave, for he declared he was getting good "atmosphere." Nowadays, if you want to find out where somebody's anger is, just mention playing a joke on Beban!

Mason.
Los Angeles theatergoers who have seen Cyril Maude will be glad to welcome him again, and those who have never seen him will have an opportunity to make his acquaintance next week at the Mason.

Before Crowned Heads.
Of course, we all know it would be quite impossible for all the "artists" on the stage who lay claim to the distinction to have really appeared before "crowned heads." There wouldn't be enough crowned heads to go around for one thing, that is, if royalty ever takes a day off from seeing shows. However, the fact is vouched for that Cyril Maude, who comes to the Mason next week in his famous play, "Grumpy," really has appeared in three "command performances," as you probably know, is called so by courtesy. It assumes that the artist is so busy he has little time to bother with royalty, but royalty has heard about his performance and just can't stand it another minute without seeing him do his act at a private showing.

The Three "Command Performances."
At which Mr. Maude appeared the first on November 9, 1907, when he acted Peter in "French as She is Spoken," and appeared in "The Clandestine" before King Edward and Queen Alexandra, at Sandringham, on November 15, in the following year, when he again acted before their Majesties as Richard Laocles in "The Flag Lieutenant," and at Balmoral Castle, during the autumn of 1915, when he played the leading role before King George and Queen Mary in "The Head Master."

"Mission Play."
The "Mission Play" takes better in Southern California than in any section of the State or country in which it has been produced. One reason for this is the scenic views between Los Angeles and San Gabriel which the spectator always enjoys before reaching the Mission Play House. Another reason is the wonderful setting amidst which the play is produced and which cannot be duplicated elsewhere. The third reason is the spirit with which the players enact their parts here.

Orpheum.
Two new top liners grace the Orpheum bill, opening with Monday's matinee, these being George Whiteford and Howard, who are having the time of their young lives in the big out of doors that Southern California provides. Mrs. Blossom is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Clifford of St. Louis. Mr. Clifford is a prominent steel manufacturer of that city.

Mrs. Walker Entertains.
Mrs. Milo Charles Walker of No. 7539 Norton avenue, Hollywood, entertained Wednesday afternoon at a luncheon and kitchen shower in honor of her sister, Zolpha Mary McKain, who will become the bride of Harold D. Roebuck in May. Covers were laid for fourteen guests.

Opening Ball.
The opening ball of the Stratford apartments, Sixth and Burlington streets, was given last Thursday.

For Mrs. Richards.
A number of functions have been given for Mrs. C. W. Richards of Burlington avenue, a popular bride. Among them was a luncheon by Mrs. George Fuesnot at the country club Tuesday. There were thirty guests.

Spring Ball at Maryland.
The spring ball which took place at the Maryland last evening was one of the prettiest events of the season, and one of the gayest, with the ballroom a bower of multicolored blossoms and the guests of the women displaying the spring colors with all the delicate variations and shades of tones possible. The intermission was made pleasurable by two dances in costume by clever little Mia Marvin, who gave a stately minuet, and a delightful little spring waltz.

Many hundred guests were present, many coming from the Huntington, Green and Raymond.

Return from San Francisco.
Mrs. Robert Gaylord of Pasadena, who, with her husband, recently took a cottage at Venice for the summer, and who has been in San Francisco for the past two weeks, returned from the northern city recently. He will spend a few weeks at her Venice home, and then will make another flying visit to San Francisco to meet a friend who is coming from China.

Mrs. Peary Complimented.
Mrs. Earle Remington of No. 415 South Gramercy entertained for Mrs. Peary, wife of Admiral Peary, at the Athletic Club Monday evening.

The table was decorated with Easter lilies, with place cards further carrying out the Easter idea. Covers were laid for six ladies. Admiral and Mrs. Peary are being much feted, and this dinner was particularly agreeable to Mrs. Peary, as she and Mrs. Remington are old school friends.

MUSICAL NOTES AND COMMENT.
A presentation of Bach's Double Concerto for violins and orchestra with Fritz Kreisler and Efrim Zimbalist as soloists, is to furnish a splendid opening for the series of concerts by the New York Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Walter Damrosch, in this city the end of this month. Arrangements have just been completed by L. E. Behrmer and the management of the orchestra and Mr. Kreisler for the performance of the celebrated work. It will be given at Shrine Auditorium, in view of the fact that a large attendance will be attracted. The concert will be the 24th inst.

Maude Fay Tonight.
Maude Fay will make her first concert appearance in this city this evening at Trinity Auditorium. She will present a fine series of vocal, instrumental, and piano pieces. Miss Fay received her early musical education here and later went to Europe for a course of study. She made her debut in opera on the Continent. Since her return to America she has been singing at the Metropolitan Opera House. Her success in certain principal operatic roles has been quite phenomenal.

Notes and Notations.
The Brahms Quintette will play an all-American program at its public rehearsal tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Metropolitan. This pair of events will close the season for this excellent local organization, which has won warmer praise than ever this season for its work.

BILL TO CHANGE AT THE STOCK THEATERS COMING WEEK.

It's mostly a matter of music at local theaters this week, with Composer Primi lined up against Comedian Sullivan, and the chorus girls of "The Mikado" making faces at the women of the harem in "Katinka." The Morocco company is repeating its success of last week—a success in spite of its somewhat morbid theme.

People are looking forward with happy anticipation to the coming of Cyril Maude next week in his great success, "Grumpy."

The vaudeville houses this week offer unusually clever hits and the picture theaters have a number of splendid photoplays, the feature being Jules Verne's story, "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea." Among the stars to be seen at local picture houses are George M. Cohan, Sessue Hayakawa, Earle Williams, Harold Lockwood, May Allison, Violet Mercereau, Mary Sunshine and many others.

Orpheum.
Two new top liners grace the Orpheum bill, opening with Monday's matinee, these being George White-

ing and Sadie Burt in their clever "Sons of the Desert" and Lydia Barry in her "Lyric Raconteur"—whatever that is. Irving Newhoff and Dode Phelps also are returning with a fine series of musical numbers, and Brent Hayes, king of the banjo, will be among those present. Natalie All, the winsome singer, Miss has had a week's rest, will return for another week, while Lew Dockstader, Nita Mario and her girl orchestra, and George Kelley and company are the holdovers.

Pantages.
Frank Fogarty, the Dublin minstrel, is proving to Pantages patrons this week that he has earned the title of the most popular Celtic wit that ever kissed the Blarney stone. The Berlin Diving Girls are unquestionably among the cleverest water nymphs seen at Pantages in months, and Dix and Dixie form one of the best opening acts in the vaudeville field. Grace Edmund has a number of patriotic songs and good recitations. The Mystic Bird is a little European canary, who seems to have stolen the voice of a mockingbird, while Mack and Volney, and Miss La Vain and company, with some new ideas in the gymnastic line.

Pathe news and good photoplays will complete the bill.

Hippodrome.
Vaudeville fans will render a verdict in favor of the management of the Hippodrome if the bill at that house next week proves as good as it sounds. To begin with, there are Wank and Manning, who will offer some catchy music, and they are followed by Hawley and Bellaire in a humorous song and talk act called "333." Others are the Toki Japs, with a bunch of new and mystifying tricks. Ogden and Benson in songs, Sunset Six in a dainty musical sketch, Jewett and Pendleton, clever dancers, and Miss La Vain and company, with some new ideas in the gymnastic line.

READY TO ACT ON BILLBOARDS.

Council will not Consent to Unnecessary Delay.

City Attorney Now Drafting Various Provisions.

To Eliminate Nuisances from Residence Districts.

After receiving the report of the Chamber of Commerce Billboards Survey Committee, and referring it to the Public Welfare Committee, members of the Council yesterday declared they will not consent to any unnecessary delay in the drafting of an ordinance that will eliminate billboards from residential districts. City Attorney Stephens has the necessary data and now is working on the many different provisions of the proposed measure.

Councilwoman Lindsey said that it is not necessary for the Council to receive any more reports on the billboards situation; that the members know the subject well and are ready to take action.

"The City Attorney and the Welfare Committee made a complete survey of the billboards," said Mrs. Lindsey, "and we decided that territories should be excluded from the billboards and then leave them in the districts populated by the poorer class of citizens."

The Chamber of Commerce committee reported in favor of eliminating billboards from some of the choice residential districts, but its recommendations were not in accordance with the wishes of the Council members.

Legal Action.
SHE SEEKS DAMAGES.

Subject of Alleged Indignities Declared to Have Been Committed While Visiting Griffith Park Files Suit Against Three Men.

The unspeakable indignities alleged to have been inflicted upon Mrs. Mabel Woodard in Griffith Park March 31 by George Reese, aided and abetted, she claims, by R. V. Cox and H. F. Russell, made the subject of allegations in a suit filed yesterday through Ralph W. Fontenot against the young men for $15,000 damages.

Mrs. Woodard, who is separated from her husband, accepted an invitation to go on an automobile ride with the defendants and Fay Miller. Arriving in Griffith Park, she says that she was dragged from the automobile and taken to a rooming house where she was held. Reese, she claims, seized her by the feet and ankles and dragged her into a gully. Still fighting hard, she says, he struck her with his fist, dislocating her jaw. By this time she was exhausted and a nervous wreck and says she was forced to submit to indignities.

The defendants were arrested, growing out of the alleged assaults on the young woman, and are out on bail pending a hearing.

Case Dismissed.
WOMAN CLEARS HIM.

Stenographer Who Accused Man for Her Condition Says She Lied, to "Get Even" with Him Because She Was Refused Employment.

The former stenographer of Morris Arons appeared in the District Attorney's office yesterday and said she had lied when she made charges against the man. The girl's name is Bernice Roper, and she said her condition was not due to Arons' attentions, but to another man. She said she had tried to get work from Mr. Arons, had been refused, and then had decided to "get even" by testifying against him.

Deputy District Attorney Powell took the information into Superior Judge Craig's court yesterday and Judge Craig at once dismissed the case against Mr. Arons.

Foiled.
'TIS MOLASSES.

Federal District Attorney Asks for Dismissal of Smuggling Charge When It Is Found Supposed Drug Option Is Merely Treachery.

The prosecution of Dr. H. Ching, a Chinese herbalist, who was charged with having sixty-nine cans of smoking opium in his possession, came to an untimely end yesterday, when it was discovered that the alleged opium was nothing more than contraband than the real opium, which had been touched up with an opium tincture.

The preliminary examination of Ching was about ready to proceed before United States Commissioner Hammack, when Assistant United States District Attorney Moody asked that the charge would be dismissed, stating that the stuff had been analyzed by a chemist in the interest of the government and found to be molasses.

One of the features of the opium trade that has lately come to the attention of officials is that the smugglers coming north from Tia Juana all have the real opium, while those that come from Mexico have the bogus stuff.

The manufacturing and sale of the last is a very remunerative game. It is sold at prices ranging from $40 to $50 per five-tal can, and the purchaser of the alleged opium is in no position to make any trouble, for it is against the law to deal in it.

Whether Ching invested about $4000 in the purchase and is out that amount, or whether he had it on hand to operate in other ways, is not the concern of the law, as the law is not known.

JUDGE FRUSTRATED IN DESIRE TO HEAR WIFE'S SIDE.

She Smoked Cigarettes and Said If I Didn't Like It She Would Leave, Says Young Guardsman in Seeking Divorce—However, He'll Have to Wait for Decree.

"My wife liked cafe life; she smoked cigarettes. She told me she was not going to break it off, and if I did not like it, she would leave." In a statement this was the testimony of M. Stanley Connell, a young husband, before Judge Wood in divorce proceedings yesterday.

"She smoked cigarettes before we married her, didn't she?" asked the court.

Connell admitted that she did. But when he told Judge Wood that he had enlisted in the National Guard and was expected to go to the front, a different phase was put on the case. The court, while intimating he would grant a decree, stated that he wanted an opportunity to ask the wife why she left, but it appeared that no one knows where she is, and the case will be continued until February 1, 1918.

A letter written by Mrs. Connell to her mother-in-law was offered in evidence.

"I shall never live with Stanley again," she wrote. "There is not a chance in the world I could not live with him under any circumstances. He has my good wishes, but as a husband never. Consider this final. I don't think you will ever see me again."

WINS HER FIGHT.

Mary McLaren, a 17-year-old film actress, who sought to break a contract with a local film manufacturing company on the ground that her mother had signed the contract before she saw it, and the further ground that it contained objectionable provisions, won her fight before Presiding Judge Houser yesterday.

He entered an order rescinding the contract and ordered that the original papers be brought to him for cancellation.

The corporation, after the preliminary legal fight with demurrers, failed to file an answer, and judgment was given for Miss McLaren.

NO DAMAGES.

William L. York was returned the victor yesterday in Judge Wilbur's court in the $15,000 damage suit brought by Grayson Lewis for an alleged malicious assault committed upon him. The allegation, during which Mr. Lewis claimed he was kicked in the face and otherwise injured, arose while the men were rivals in the chicken and egg business.

Mr. York complained that Mr. Lewis erected signs with objectionable wordings on them and is other ways sought to harass him. The case hinged on the question of whether the signs were erected with malicious intent. The jury found for Mr. York. The latter was represented by Earl Coghlan, Milton Cohen, Harrison Cansell and James Hickey; Mr. Lewis by W. E. Ledy.

DALTO DIVORCE. Cenilo Dalto, former trainer of boxers, did not contest the divorce suit of Agnes C. Dalto, which was tried and decided in her favor by Judge Wood yesterday.

Mrs. Dalto charged desertion. The trial of the suit developed the allegation that Mr. Dalto was the childhood sweetheart of Mrs. Mabel C. Reeves, who was divorced by Charles W. Reeves.

MONROE TRIAL. Thomas Monroy, charged with having stockpiled his store in Piru with goods stolen from a railroad company, was on trial yesterday in Superior Judge Craig's court. Witnesses present for the prosecution said they identified the goods in Monroy's store as those taken from a box car in San Fernando. The case was continued until today.

CASE SUBMITTED. Judge Hewitt yesterday took under submission the question involved in the suit of Velma Smith, 11 years old, against Bernice Bowen, 12 years old, for $25,000 damages for injuries sustained when she alleged that Bernice waltzingly jumped on her back at school in Pasadena. Bernice denied the charge, declaring that when she placed her hands on Velma's shoulders there was nothing malicious in the act.

KNOTTY POINT. Frank Bartolotti, who was arrested February 1 last for an alleged violation of the act to protect owners of milk bottles, has raised the question of the constitutionality of the law under which he was arrested. He asked for a writ of prohibition to prevent the police court from adjudging him guilty of violating the law. After a hearing yesterday Judge Hewitt took the matter under submission.

COSTS HER SUIT. Mrs. Pearl Bates was a frank witness in her suit for divorce against Warren C. Bates, a real estate broker. In fact, her frankness cost her a decree, because she admitted she was glad when Mr. Bates left her, she having suggested that they live apart. Since their separation in September, 1915, she said she has supported herself from her separate property. The decree was denied by Judge Houser.

COUNCIL EVENLY DIVIDED AND QUESTION IS DELAYED.

Four Members Declare It Is the Duty of the City to be Prepared for Emergencies that may Arise
During the War—Others Said
the People Should Decide.

The Council yesterday was evenly divided on the question of placing upon the ballot at the election on June 5 the proposition of whether $3,000,000 in bonds shall be issued for the erection of a public library at Fifth and Olive streets. As a result the question will not be presented to the voters.

Declaring that with the war on there may be many emergencies arise which will require the expenditure of large sums for other more needed things, Councilmen Betkouski, Wheeler, Roberts and Mrs. Lindsey voted against the proposed bond issue.

In voting for an issue Councilmen Connell, Langdon, Brain and Wright said they were actuated by the principle of letting the people decide such questions for themselves.

Mayor Woodman recently announced that there will be no more bond issues with his approval until after peace is declared.

LOWER STANDARD.
BAKERS WANT SMALLER ONES.

Manufacturing bakers yesterday petitioned the Council to reduce the standard of weights now applied to bread loaves. They said their investment represents $1,500,000, with a pay roll of $10,000 per week. The ordinance fixes the weights at 13, 24, 35, 45, 60 and 75 ounces; the price being 6 to 12 cents for ordinary loaves. The bakers declared the people want to pay 5 and 10 cents, and they want the weights so reduced that these prices can be charged. The matter was referred to the welfare committee.

Site for Fish Cannery.
The Council yesterday adopted an ordinance granting to the Southern California Fish Company permission to use sufficient tide lands for a site for a cannery which it proposes to build. The Harbor Commission has approved the ordinance.

City Must Pay Bill.
The lighting bills for the Westgate district, which was recently annexed, must be paid by the city, according to a decision rendered yesterday by City Attorney Stephens. The Council agreed to have the bills taken care of in the annual budget.

To Regulate Movies.
After instructing the City Attorney to prepare an ordinance repealing the "movie" ordinance which prohibits children under 14 years of age attending the "movies" unless accompanied by parent or guardian, the Council yesterday instructed the Welfare Committee to confer further with citizens interested in the subject, the purpose being to finally adopt an ordinance that can be enforced.

An action was filed in the United States District Court yesterday by L. F. Vance against the Chicago Portrait Company and S. M. Paine to recover $2000 alleged to be due on a note given the complainant in Chicago October 18, 1914, which it is claimed is unpaid.

Mrs. Minka Gordon Declares Man
Sued by Her Husband Was Sim-

Family and that Suit is
"Grand Stand Play."

Mrs. Minka Gordon of Long Beach, the pretty young wife of Joseph Gordon, traveling salesman who Monday filed suit against Samuel H. Price, wealthy San Diego clothing merchant, for the alleged alienation of his wife's affections, yesterday declared that Mr. Price was a highly respected friend of the Gordon family, and that there absolutely had been no love affair between them.

Mrs. Gordon, who says she has not been living with her husband for the past two years, is suing for divorce on the grounds of extreme cruelty, and declared that this action on the part of her husband was but a grand stand play in attempt to injure her name and that of her mother and young sister. "Her sister is connected with the Balboa Amusement Company in Long Beach and is regarded as a coming vim star."

Attorneys for Mr. Gordon say they have in the possession of certain incriminating letters secured by Mr. Gordon by a ruse connected with a visit recently to the Gordon home in Los Angeles. Mrs. Gordon says the letters secured were addressed to and were the property of her mother, and that the contents thereof was nobody's business.

Requiescat.
FOR FAITHFUL ONE.

Services Held in This City for the Pastor Who Died at the Foot of the Hilltop Cross on Morning of Easter.

Funeral services for Rev. C. H. Lawrence, who died at the foot of the cross where he was to have held Easter services in Ventura Sunday, were conducted yesterday afternoon at the South Main street Methodist Church at Main and Fifty-second streets.

Rev. E. J. Inwood, district superintendent of the Methodist Church, preached the funeral sermon and was assisted by Rev. Tully C. Knowles, Rev. Ezra A. Healy and Rev. George Reed. Burial took place in Evergreen Cemetery, in charge of the W. A. Brown Undertaking Company.

Mr. Lawrence was 58 years old. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Nellie Lawrence; a daughter, Miss Mabel J. Lawrence of Ventura; and a son, Arthur D. Lawrence of this city.

Mr. Lawrence was born in Canada, entering the ministry when 20 years old, and after a service there of fifteen years he came to Southern California, where he served twenty-five years in the Southern California Conference. He served as pastor in Santa Maria, Arroyo Grande, Escondido, Santa Paula, Los Angeles and Ventura.

On Sunday he walked up the hill and was sitting at the foot of the cross, resting before the crowd arrived, when he passed away. It was on the spot that the Franciscan fathers first erected a cross, in 1872, at the time they established the mission at Ventura. Many years ago it had become a custom to hold Easter services on the spot, and four years ago a large cross was erected to take the place of an old wooden one. It was Mr. Lawrence's wish that when he died he would pass in some such way as that in which he was taken.

COSTS HER SUIT. Mrs. Pearl Bates was a frank witness in her suit for divorce against Warren C. Bates, a real estate broker. In fact, her frankness cost her a decree, because she admitted she was glad when Mr. Bates left her, she having suggested that they live apart. Since their separation in September, 1915, she said she has supported herself from her separate property. The decree was denied by Judge Houser.

DAMAGE FOR SLANDER.

Man Who Is Alleged to have Said that Pomona's Former City Attorney Would Steal from Own Mother Is Made to Pay by Court.

A remark alleged to have been made by Walter E. Dailey, former City Clerk of Lordsburg, concerning Joseph A. Allard, Jr., former City Attorney of that place, formed the basis of a suit for slander which was tried by Judge Sherk yesterday.

The alleged slander was uttered during a conversation with W. C. Doughty and Mr. Dailey. They were discussing the action of the City Council in reducing the salary of the City Clerk from $150 to $50 a year, and the name of Mr. Allard was mentioned.

"Why, Allard, he would steal from his mother if he got a chance," Mr. Dailey is alleged to have stated. Through this remark, Mr. Allard told the court, he believed he lost a client who had consulted him, but did not return after the alleged statement. While his friends did not believe the charge, he asserted his enemies spread the remark. The court awarded him $200 damages. Mr. Dailey was represented by an attorney, but offered no defense.

Aviles and others from May 8 to May 10. Aviles and the others are charged with violation of the neutrality laws.

STOP HEADACHES
BEFOREHAND

You never had a headache when you were well. To keep well is to keep clean, inside. To relieve headache, and to prevent it, keep the liver active and industrious and the bowels as regular as a clock.

Two generations of healthy, vigorous people have done this by taking one pill at bedtime, regularly—a larger dose when nature gives the warning.

CASE SUBMITTED. Judge Hewitt yesterday took under submission the question involved in the suit of Velma Smith, 11 years old, against Bernice Bowen, 12 years old, for $25,000 damages for injuries sustained when she alleged that Bernice waltzingly jumped on her back at school in Pasadena. Bernice denied the charge, declaring that when she placed her hands on Velma's shoulders there was nothing malicious in the act.
